Notification

Subject: Legal expenses towards the court matters related to affiliated institutes to be recovered from the respective institutes

Reference: Proceedings 40 th special meeting of the Executive Council was held on Thursday, 25th January, 2024

As the university is growing, the court matters related to the affiliated institutes are also increasing day by day. Majorly the cases are related to the service related matters and pending dues of the employees of the institutes or related to the students grievances against the institute. However, in all these matters university is also made a party and the university has to pay heavy fees to the advocates and related expenses.

The Executive Council, during the meeting dated 25th Jan 2024, resolved that all the expenses towards the court matters including Advocate fees and other expenses related to affiliated colleges to be recovered from the respective institutes. However, as per the court of law, if the university is found at fault or responsible for the said matter, in such case the university should bear all the expenses towards the court matter including the fees of the advocate. In such case, if the cost is already recovered from the institute, then the same must be refunded to the institute or adjusted against any other dues pending from the institute or against the affiliation fees for the subsequent year.
