III. 15 additional Marks will be allotted to the eligible UG/PG students : For securing First, Second or Third rank at National Level All India Inter University Sports Tournaments sponsored by AIU/Khelo India youth games.

For giving these additional marks for extra-curricular activity, the rules and regulations are as follows:

1. These additional marks will be applicable to the respective students by allowing them to get marks in more than one subject.

2. These additional marks will be applicable for those students who failed or got an ATKT in the respective subjects.

3. These additional grace marks shall be added to any of the passing heads or to any subjects, as the case may be, in the examination if the student has fail in such heads of passing/subjects and if such additional marks enable the student to get necessary passing marks or to improve grade.

4. It should be noted that the additional marks shall not be taken into consideration for the purpose of award of any prize, scholarship, and merit list or for such other similar purposes.

5. The additional marks shall be granted to the candidate only for that examination during which the candidate has participated in the activity. These additional marks shall not be carried forward to the next examination.

6. Students participating in Student Development Board, Sports Department and Winners of Avishakar Prize will get additional marks each year. These additional marks, on any condition must not carry forward in the next or succeeding Academic Year.

7. The N.C.C. and N.S.S. students shall get the benefit of the additional marks only in the final year of their PG/UG programme.

8. These additional marks are to be given as an incentive for the students who are in need to pass examination and to secure their First Class and Second Class only.

9. In case of failure in one or more heads of passing an examination, the benefit of the grace marks shall be granted to the extent of 5% of the maximum marks allotted to a subject.

10. The additional marks, which surpass the passing marks limit, will be added in the total marks.

11. If a student has cleared all the subjects, then these additional marks are to be adjusted with the gross total so that he/she will get an increased percentage. In the case of credit based system, the appropriate fraction of the grace marks granted will be added in the final GPA of the candidate.

12. The grace marks will not be counted for the award of scholarships, prizes, and medals, or any other awards.

13. The additional marks shall be granted to the candidate only for that examination during which the candidate has participated in the Sports/Cultural/Avishakr activity. These additional marks shall not be carried forward to the next examination.
